Tailored Solutions

Spot

A spot contract allows you to secure an exchange rate and move your money as quickly as you like. This is the ideal contract if you want to move funds quickly and you want to take advantage of a preferential exchange rate.

Forward

A Forward contract allows you to fix a rate for a future date even if all your funds are not available at the time. This will also help to protect you against any adverse exchange rate movements, helping you to manage your cash flows more effectively.

Stop loss and limit orders

You can target or set a minimum exchange rate which, if achieved in the markets your currency will automatically be bought or sold. If you have upcoming payments but are not restricted by time, these orders will allow you to aim for a favourable exchange rate while protecting you against sudden market movements.

Multiple payments

We have the technology and infrastructure to make multiple or batch payments to regular or new payees. Our solutions can save you time, money, and simplify the whole process streamlining your operation.

"Clear, concise and thoroughly professional. Brilliant service."
